

City of Fayetteville
Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, ballroom dancing is enjoyed by people of all ages as a valuable social and physical activity that enhances physical, mental and social health; AND
- WHEREAS, the Cape Fear Ballroom Dancers provide an opportunity for all citizens of the Cape Fear Region to enjoy ballroom dancing; AND
- WHEREAS, the benefits of ballroom dancing have been embraced by the citizens of the Cape Fear Region, resulting in this chapter becoming the second largest in North Carolina; AND
- WHEREAS, special events are being held this week throughout the United States to increase public awareness of the fun and benefit of ballroom dancing; AND
- WHEREAS, promoting the arts and encouraging the residents of Fayetteville to participate in the dancing and enjoyment of such a week of ballroom activity is worthwhile;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, J.L. Dawkins, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of Fayetteville, North Carolina, do now proclaim September 18-24, 1994, as

Ballroom Dance Week

in Fayetteville and commend the observance of this week to the citizens of our community.

J. L. Dawkins
J.L. Dawkins,
Mayor